Issue 41: November 2023

Dear colleagues

Welcome to the November edition of the FIDIC CEO's Update, my regular round-up of the latest FIDIC corporate activities, initiatives and events.

Introduction

As we close in on the end of the year, here at FIDIC we remain busy and focused on delivering the remainder of our 2023 programme of events and activities while also preparing the ground for 2024 and for what is already shaping up to be another busy 12 months. A forthcoming highlight as we near the end of 2023 is undoubtedly our annual Official FIDIC International Contract Users' Conference and Awards which will take place in London on 28-29 November 2023. This key event for FIDIC contract users is always well worth attending and a key gathering for this important community. I am looking forward to meeting many of you at the event and to marking another successful year for FIDIC contracts and the projects on which they are used. Elsewhere, it's been good to see the progress that FIDIC is making with the World Bank in terms of new agreements signed and the multilateral development banks (MDBs) signing up to an agreement to mainstream sustainability into domestic procurement activity. FIDIC's key values of quality, integrity and sustainability drive everything that we do and frame the standing and reputation of our global member associations and their member firms too, so it's very pleasing to see the MDBs and FIDIC aligned on the issues that matter.
